Welcome to the Epidemiology Section Awards Session!

The Epidemiology Section Leadership welcomes you to the Epidemiology Section Awards Session. We are privileged to present the Section's career awards to esteemed leaders and provide you the opportunity to reconnect with their accomplishments and major contributions to epidemiology and public health. Please join us at the Section's Epidemiology across the Americas reception this evening at 6:00 in W190B at the McCormick Place Convention Center.

John Snow Award: This award recognizes the contribution of an outstanding epidemiologist for excellence in epidemiological practice or research.

Abraham Lilienfeld Award: This award recognizes excellence in the teaching of epidemiology during the course of a career.

Wade Hampton Frost Lectureship: This award recognizes the contribution the recipient has made in addressing a public health issue of major importance by applying epidemiology.
