

"From the age of 5 I learned I had to struggle to survive, from my experiences I was blessed to be one of the first pioneers in helping to develop the first low income housing program for our Black community of Pine Knolls in Chapel Hill, N.C."

Virginia Barbee

"Racism and white supremacy weigh heavily on the backs of black and brown people in this nation, and one of the heaviest chains shackling us is gentrification. In my anthology covering 70 and some years, I describe my activist journey..."

Ted Parrish

Chapel Hill Historical Society Book Launch Event

November 21, 3 – 4:30 PM

Seymour Center

Virginia Barbee and Donna Rowan-Edwards present Virginia Barbee's Autobiography, Forgive.

Ted and Jackie Parrish present Ted's memoir, Brazen: Race, Gentrification, and the Path of My Own Life, with commentary by Dr. John Hatch, DrPH.